Working with Children

Contact with children is defined as working on an activity or in a position that involves or may involve contact with children, either under the position description or due to the nature of the work environment.

Direct Aid Program considers a child to be a person under the age of 18 years.

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) has a zero tolerance approach to child exploitation or abuse. DFAT recognises that it is the shared responsibility of all adults to prevent child exploitation and abuse. In Australia, there is recognition that organisations that work with children also have a role in protecting them, and need policies and procedures to enable them to do so.

The policy applies to all DFAT funded partners including:

- Contractors
- Consultants, advisers and contracted individuals
- Non-Government (NGO), Civil society (CSO) and contractor organisations and their personnel
- Downstream partners or organisations subcontracted by DFAT funded NGO's, CSO's consultants, contractors or advisers and their personnel
- Australian Volunteers Program participants and partner organisations
- Recipients and awardees under the Australia Awards program
- DFAT grant recipients, including under the Australian NGO Cooperation Program (ANCP), Direct Aid Program (DAP) and Public Diplomacy programs.
